ARCADE MARKET NEWS

The Palm Cafe on the second floor has one of the finest equipped dining places in the northwest. The management has made elaborate arrangements to serve a full course Christmas dinner on Saturday and Sunday. In addition, they have secured the services of white waitresses.

It's not hard to keep the family in good humor if you have good, wholesome things to eat. You can select a delightful lot of good things here. They are the most and best specialties of the season. The quality makes them an economy.

The frugal housewife, no matter in what section of the city she resides, knows where she can secure the best that money can buy. The Arcade Market is noted both for its high-class goods and the courteous attention accorded every purchaser.

Purity, freshness, and absolute cleanliness are factors that add their attractiveness to the low prices that you will find in the Arcade Market.

Turkeys can be seen in every aisle—plump, fat birds that will certainly tickle the palate at Yuletide.

Scalloped or broiled oysters always add to the reputation of the hostess and afford delight to the guest.

"Morning Star" coffee will help to make your breakfast one of the pleasantest memories of the day.

Evaporated apples are very appetizing.

We are after your Sunday's dinner order.

White Cross Milk is always wholesome—absolutely free from adulteration.

Shoppers' lunches are a specialty with the Palm Cafe.

Buckwheat cakes and Phillips' sausages form a delicious combination.

Serve some dainty fish occasionally.
They afford a delightful change from heavy meats.

If you are busy with household cares, phone your order to your dealer. Prompt delivery will follow.

We advertise for your first order; our quality and price will bring you again.

If tired and hungry, drop in for a bite of lunch at the Palm Cafe.
